

SOCIAL AND OTHER INTERESTS OF WOMEN

Society

Mrs. Sanford Rugee, 117 S. William st., has issued invitations for a luncheon at the Oliver hotel Friday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock to comprise Mrs. J. C. Rugee of Milwaukee, who arrived Tuesday afternoon to be her guest, and Mrs. G. Stanley Mitchell, also of Milwaukee, who is visiting Mrs. Wallace Dodge of Mishawaka.

Typical of the season will be the married folks' dance at the Commercial Athletic club Wednesday evening. The dancing hall will be converted into a barn with stalls and hay mow. Horse blankets and harness hanging on the walls and corn fodder and baled hay scattered about will enhance the effect. All the guests will come in hard-times or old-fashioned costumes and "Seth Newbury," the old-fashioned fiddler will play for the dancing. There will be a full orchestra beside. The refreshments will be apples, doughnuts and pumpkin pie.

Mrs. Homer Fassnacht, 697 Park av., entertained informally with a parcel shower Monday afternoon complimenting Miss Bess Whittner, whose marriage to William Stockford will take place Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Weatherman of Sturgis, Mich., was an out of town guest. Among other affairs for Miss Whittner was a 6 o'clock dinner Friday evening given by Mrs. J. C. Lay, 395 W. Monroe st.

The Clio circle held a regular meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Stover of Rex st. The leaders for the afternoon were Mrs. Walter Hager and Miss Harriet Stover. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess at the close of the afternoon.

The subject of an unusually interesting paper presented before the Current Events departments of the Progress club Monday afternoon was "Ellen Key—Her Message to the Women of Today" by Miss Virginia Tutt. The next meeting of the department will be Dec. 8 when the scenic wonders of America will be presented by Mrs. Frank Korn, Mrs. Ryell T. Miller and Miss Harriett Keller.

The Opposition club was pleasantly entertained Monday evening at the home of Miss Bertha Darr on Leland av. The evening was spent at needlework and delicious refreshments were served. The club will meet in December with Mrs. George Brown on DeMaude av.

The fifth grade at St. Joseph's academy entertained the sixth Monday afternoon at an informal Thanksgiving party in the school rooms. An important program of music and recitations followed by dancing and dainty refreshments passed the hours between 3 o'clock and 5:30. Wednesday afternoon the older girls will be similarly entertained.

Complimentary to Miss Maud Whittman of S. Michigan st. and Mrs. E. H. Miller entertained a company of young women Sunday at their home on the Portage road. A delicious dinner was served in three courses at noon, covers being placed for ten. Miss Clara Erhardt favored the guests with musical selections.

The A. K. club met at the home of Miss Mabel Frame, 2401 S. Main st. Monday evening. A social hour followed the business session. The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Margaret Still, 1317 S. Main st. next Monday evening.

BRIDAL TABLE AND MAID OF HONOR.

In the bridal party were Miss Margaret Wilson, eldest daughter of the president, who was maid-of-honor for her sister, Miss Eleanor Randolph Wilson, youngest member of the presidential family, and the several girlhood friends of the bride who had been selected as bridesmaids.

Miss Mary G. White, of Baltimore was a chum of Miss Wilson atoucher college; Miss Adeline Mitchell Scott, daughter of Prof. William B. Scott of Princeton university, was a girlhood friend of the bride, and Miss Marjorie Brown, daughter of Col. F. T. Brown of Atlanta, Ga., is a second cousin of Miss Wilson on the maternal side.

The attendants of the groom were chosen from among friends he made at college and in philanthropic work.

Dr. Willard T. Grenfell, famous explorer and philanthropist, was best man. The ushers were:

Benjamin B. Burton, of New York city, an alumnus of Williams College, 1912; Dr. Scoville Clark of Salem, Mass., who Mr. Sayre knew and worked with in Labrador; Dr. Gilbert Horrax, of Montclair, N. J., who attended Williams college with Mr. Sayre in 1912; and Charles Evans Hughes, Jr., son of Associate Justice Hughes of the supreme court.

WM. H. CRANE BRIDGES
25 YEARS ON STAGE

Veteran Actor Reviews "The Henrietta" Which He Played Quarter Century Ago.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 25.—A quarter of a century in the theatrical world was bridged when Wm. H. Crane revived his famous old play, "The Henrietta," here. The old comedy was first played by Mr. Crane in New York Sept. 26, 1887. The modern play, "The New Henrietta," by Winchell Smith and Victor Mapes, is Bronson Howard's comedy brought up to date. It was enthusiastically received.

YOU can afford to pay $25 for one of our suits or overcoats.

We are sure of it, not because we know what your resources are, but because we know what the clothes are; and we know what $25 means and what it usually gets in clothes.

In buying our clothes, we carry steadily in mind the thought, not that we are going to sell them, but that some person is going to wear them. Our aim is always to show the best in quality and style. If we attain those things, we need not worry about the selling; the goods sell themselves.

You can buy clothes here at $10 and $15 and higher. Start at $25.
